

Mohawks trip Eagles

By GARY FLEGEL

In J.V. basketball action last Friday, the Morley-Stanwood Mohawks defeated the Kent City J.V.'s by the score of 61-48. This loss dropped the Eagles record to 4-3 in the N.C.A.A.

Record Day

There will be no classes for Sparta High and Middle School students Monday, January 24th, due to teachers semester - end record day. Tuesday, January 25th, the first day of the second semester, all students must be in homeroom at 7:55 for 2nd semester registration.

both teams in man to man defenses. The Mohawks jumped to a quick six to nothing lead but Kent City fought back, cutting their lead to one point as Dan Kragt hit a pair of shots with about three minutes left in the opening period. Morley-Stanwood then opened up a 16 to 11 lead, but Dan Kragt cut it to three as he put in a shot with three seconds left. The Eagle offense was hampered the opening period by twelve turnovers which helped the Mohawks to their 16-13 first quarter lead.

Morley-Stanwood increased their lead to 27-17 the second quarter. Kent City's anemic offense only managed four points the second quarter mainly due to their lack of offensive rebounding.

In the second half Morley-Stanwood continued to dominate the boards. The closest the Eagles ever came was when they cut the Mohawk lead to nine points near the end of the third quarter. When the final buzzer sounded the scoreboard showed Kent City on the short end of a 61-48 score and with their third loss in their last four games.

Leading scorers for Kent City were Jim Stebbins with 16 points and Dan Kragt with 14. Kragt also led the Eagles in rebounding with six.
