News From Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp

TWIN LAKE, Michigan — A record 230 talented young musicians and singers will participate in Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp's eighth annual goodwill tour to Europe this summer. Four musical groups — a 75-piece symphony orchestra, 83-member band, 23-piece jazz band and 50-voice choir — will tour Sweden, Norway, Denmark and northern Germany from June 13 to July 10. Blue Lake, which is located 15 miles north of Muskegon, is the second largest facility of its type in the U.S.
