V A News Release

Families of Veterans should be made aware of the VA burial allowance available to former servicemen and women, the Veterans Administration said recently.

For example, VA provides a payment of up to $250 toward the burial expenses of eligible veterans. An additional $150 is available as a plot or interment allowance when burial is not in a National Cemetery or other cemetery under jurisdiction of the Federal government.

VA burial or plot allowances are not paid to the extent that payment has been made by the veteran's employer or by a State agency or political subdivision of a State.

When the veteran's death is service-connected, payment of an amount not to exceed $800 will be made in lieu of the usual burial and interment allowances.

With the exception of Arlington National Cemetery, burial is available to eligible veterans at all National Cemeteries having space. Burial in these cemeteries may also be authorized for an eligible veteran's wife or husband, minor children and, under certain conditions, unmarried adult children.

Since 1967, burial in Arlington National Cemetery has been limited to persons dying while on active military duty, Medal of Honor winners, former service personnel on official service retired lists who are eligible for compensation stemming from their active service; certain high officials of the Federal government and certain members of the immediate families of those listed above or those already buried there.

A headstone or grave marker is available from the VA for eligible veterans and memorial markers are provided for certain members of the armed forces who die on active duty and whose remains are not recovered or who are buried at sea.

VA will also, upon request, provide an American flag to drape the casket of the veteran.

Veterans eligible for the plot allowance are those who were discharged under conditions other than dishonorable and who served in the Spanish-American War, Mexican Border period, World Wars I and II, the Korean Conflict, the Vietnam Era, or peacetime veterans entitled to service-connected compensation at time of death or discharge, or who were retired for disability incurred in the line of duty.

Full information concerning these allowances and eligibility criteria for them is available at any Veterans Administration office.
