

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Knapp of 1170 17 Mile Rd. Kent City, are proud to announce the engagement of their daughter Sherry Marlene to William E. Rasch, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Rasch of Conklin. Their wedding is planned on February 19, 1977 at St. Joseph's Church, Wright.

Fahling-Gentz Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Fahling, announce the engagement of their daughter Penny Sue to Glenn Gentz, son of Herbert Gentz of Kent City and Ruby Gentz of Kentwood. The couple are planning a fall wedding.

Wheeler-Georges Wedding

St. Marys Cathedral, Cheyenne, Wyoming was the setting for the Nuptial Mass of Patricia Ann Georges and Wayne F. Wheeler Jr. on Dec. 18, 1976.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. John Georges Jr. of Cheyenne, Wyoming and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne F. Wheeler Sr. of Comstock Park, Mich.

The bride given in marriage by her father was lovely in a gown of white polyester knit trimmed with white maribu. It was designed with a high neck, an inset of beaded illusion in the bodice, long sleeves, and an overskirt that ended in a chapel train. A fingertip veil of white illusion attached to a Juliet cap accented with seed pearls accented the gown. She carried a bridal bouquet of sprigs of holly red roses and carnation, white babies breath and red roses and carnation, white streamers tied in love knots.

Mrs. Robert Georges of Cheyenne, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Susan Mehalow of Cheyenne, Cindy Anderson of Anchorage, Alaska, and Susan Wheeler of Comstock Park, Mich. The bridal party was attired in the Christmas seasons colors and carried white winter muffs. The flower girl was Jennifer Howery of Terrington, Wyoming. The ring bearer Tommy Georges, nephew of the bride.

Dale Cavaneagh of Cedar Springs, Mich. was best man. Groomsmen were Robert Georges, Mike Jensen of Jackson, Wyoming and Lee Schrauger of Cheyenne, Wyoming. Ushers were Paul While and Ed Georges.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the Airport Golf Club.

After a honeymoon in Orlando, Florida and Comstock Park, Mich., the couple will make their home in Cheyenne, Wyoming.

First Runner-Up

Sue Wolf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wolf, has been named first runner up in the Miss Rodeo U.S.A. pageant held in Tulsa, Oklahoma. The Pageant was held in conjunction with the International Rodeo Association's week of finals. This is when the top fifteen cowboys and cowgirls in the United States and Canada compete in the national competition.

Miss Wolf represented Saline, Michigan in this contest. The girls were judged on knowledge of Rodeo, horsemanship, personality and poise. Sue's performance, along with the other candidates, was judged by Charlie Pride, Mrs. Hank Thompson, Mrs. Roy Clark and others.

She is a junior at Michigan State University majoring in Physical Education. She has won two varsity letters competing in Rodeo's with the Michigan State University team. She has been a participant in rodeo since her high school days. Sue went to the National High School Finals at Toma, Wisconsin; competing in two events, Barrel Racing and Goat Tying. In 1975 and again in 1977 she was voted the Michigan State University Rodeo Queen.

Sue will be competing with the University Team Feb. 25, 26, and 27th at East Lansing when they host the Mid-West Region college rodeo competition.
