

Ask The Paint Pro

QUESTION: When I opened a can of paint little flecks of color seemed to be floating in the can. What caused this?

ANSWER: Usually this is a result of inadequate mixing or an overdosing of colorants. Extended mixing of latex paints can also cause color kick-out.

His Last Command - Our First Concern

HIS LAST COMMAND--OUR FIRST CONCERN! A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend our 1977 Missionary Conference at the Rockford Baptist Church January 22 through January 26, 1977.

Our missionaries will be Rev. and Mrs. Dave Snyder of Brazil, South America; Rev. and Mrs. Jack Hough of Colombia, South America; Rev. Larry Fogle on deputation to Central African Republic; Rev. Vincent Morgan, Jewish work in New York and Rev. Bob Crockett of Inter-City work of Chicago. Each missionary will present slides, a message and informal discussions.

Our conference will start off at 8:00 A.M., January 22, with a Saturday morning breakfast for the men. Saturday night at 6:00 P.M., we will have a pizza party and missionary challenges for the Junior High, Senior High, College and Career youth, with Rev. Larry Fogle as guest speaker. Our other missionaries will give a short talk on how they were called to the mission field. Dr. Russell Shive, our CBA Missionary, will be speaker of our Sunday morning service at 10:00 A.M. Monday through Wednesday the conference will start at 7:00 P.M. with slides, informal discussions, fellowship and refreshments at 8:40 P.M.

We will have a catered luncheon on Tuesday, January 25, at 12:00 P.M. for the ladies and our missionaries. Questions will be answered by the missionary panel. Reservations made by calling the church office (866-0345) or (866-1191) by January 16 for the luncheon.

There will be an attended nursery at all services.

The next meeting of the Golden Years Fellowship will be January 19, or the third Wednesday of the new year. Pot luck dinner at noon, with Mr. and Mrs. Jack O'Donnel and Mr. and Mrs. John VanLoon as our hostess.

News Note

The Lekstrum-Burnett American Legion Auxiliary unit 107 will meet at 8 o'clock on Monday evening, January 17 at the home of Mrs. Clara Nickolie on Happy End Drive, River-view Roll-a-Home Village on Long Lake Drive.

All members are urged to attend.

LaLeche League

The LaLeche League, Rockford Group will hold its first meeting of its monthly series Thursday Jan. 13, at 9:30 AM at 6846 Woodhills NE Rockford. Open to all women interested in breast feeding. For further information call 874-6264 or 866-1180.

GRAND RAPIDS--- Private Wayne Van Gessel, a 1976 graduate of Kent City High School, has returned home as an Army recruiter aide, according to Sergeant First Class Fred Chambers, station commander of the Army's Grand Rapids North office in the Northtown Shopping Center.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Van Gessel of Kent City, PVT Van Gessel is one of more than 400 aides who have returned to their local areas across the country to tell the Army story for 30 day periods. Aide duty is limited to top recent graduates of Army individual training courses who were nominated by recruiters for the hometown recruiter assistance program.

PVT Van Gessel just completed the Army's heavy equipment repairman course at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. where he earlier participated in basic training. Following his aide duty he will be assigned to Fort Benning, Ga.

PVT Van Gessel invites all northern Kent County young people interested in learning more about the Army to contact him or an Army recruiter by phoning 364-8434 (Collect).
