

L ayer sparks Eagle win

By JIM EMERY Eagles hosted the Grant White Cloud, both teams with Brian Laver shooting Tigers, who came into the having unblemished con- and scoring 25 points, the host Kent City Eagles downed Sparta by a 60-48 count on January 4. This win upped the Eagles' overall mark to 5-2, while dropping the Spartans record to 0-8.

The first quarter was life? Then it's time for a City taking the scoring edge look at the spectacular 12-11, mainly behind Laver's speech patterns found in eight points. Kent City came out pressing the second period To sit in your first hour of and scored six points in the Spanish, one could feel right first minute and 30 seconds at home with the simple of play. With Laver quickly question Como se llama? receiving his third foul, the The answer is your name. Eagle attack had to rely on The second question would guard Dan Afton, who probably be 'How are you?', picked up eight of his fifteen which you must answer in points during this time. Due Spanish. From here on out to a countless number of the questions can and will turnovers, the Eagles get tougher. For the student managed to score only 12 who listens, the questions points and led going into and answers can be a little halftime 24-15. rough and sometimes

After the intermission tongue twisters. Kent City came out ready to play ball and outscored the Spartans, 20-8. Laver again non-monologue man- entered the game and made scripts, here come the nine points, mostly from harrowing highlights of short jump shots after Spanish history. Facts about penetrating the Spartan ancestry, wars, govern- defense with good offensive mental changes, famous moves. people and native musical

The final period saw Chris instruments are brought Christopher score 12 of his before your eyes. The next team high 22 points. This led bereavement on your Sparta on a scoring barrage beloved sanity is the "Do or which helped out-distance Die" quiz after each story the Eagles 25-16 during this read from their mind- bending books. Do you think Laver also led his team in you could live through this? the rebounding department What students like most with nine, while Doug from the class, besides Weston hauled in seven. learning to speak a new On Friday, January 7, the language, is the time given

J.V.'s lose to Spartans

By GARY FLEGEL fourth personal foul. In non-conference J.V. In the second half it was basketball action on all Sparta as they outscored January 4, the Sparta the Eagles 26-13. Kent City Spartans defeated host Kent was hampered by many City by a score of 52-36. This turnovers and very cold was the first win posted for shooting. Dan Kragt was the the Sparta J.V. Team this Eagles' only scoring threat as he scored eight points, four coming from the free

After a very sluggish first quarter, Sparta employed a full court press which forced many Kent City turnovers. Steve Johnson their leading Sparta rolled off eight scorer, who is currently unanswered points to start averaging 13.3 points a the second quarter, taking a game. Johnson had to watch 14-10 lead. Kent City did the game from the bench as manage to pull to within one he missed too many prac- point a few times, but they tices over Christmas never were able to take the vacation due to a family lead. Scott Weston brought trip. the Eagles to within three points of the Spartans as he made a short jump shot with scorers with ten points, Jim Stebbins tallied nine and Doug Jensen eight. One big factor contributing to the very fine first half as he Kent City loss was the 22 always seemed to be in the turnovers they committed middle of the action. during the game. The Stebbins tallied seven points Eagles were also hampered this half but had to leave the by poor shooting throughout game early in the second the contest, making only 14 quarter after picking up his of 37 shots from the field.

Take the plunge

By KIM EDGAR

Do you like a big challenge? Are you ready to put some excitement in your life? Then it's time for a City taking the scoring edge look at the spectacular 12-11, mainly behind Laver's speech patterns found in eight points. Kent City came out pressing the second period To sit in your first hour of and scored six points in the Spanish, one could feel right first minute and 30 seconds at home with the simple of play. With Laver quickly question Como se llama? receiving his third foul, the The answer is your name. Eagle attack had to rely on The second question would guard Dan Afton, who probably be 'How are you?', picked up eight of his fifteen which you must answer in points during this time. Due Spanish. From here on out to a countless number of the questions can and will turnovers, the Eagles get tougher. For the student managed to score only 12 who listens, the questions points and led going into and answers can be a little halftime 24-15. rough and sometimes

After the intermission tongue twisters. Kent City came out ready to play ball and outscored the Spartans, 20-8. Laver again non-monologue man- entered the game and made scripts, here come the nine points, mostly from harrowing highlights of short jump shots after Spanish history. Facts about penetrating the Spartan ancestry, wars, govern- defense with good offensive mental changes, famous moves. people and native musical

The final period saw Chris instruments are brought Christopher score 12 of his before your eyes. The next team high 22 points. This led bereavement on your Sparta on a scoring barrage beloved sanity is the "Do or which helped out-distance Die" quiz after each story the Eagles 25-16 during this read from their mind- bending books. Do you think Laver also led his team in you could live through this? the rebounding department What students like most with nine, while Doug from the class, besides Weston hauled in seven. learning to speak a new On Friday, January 7, the language, is the time given to the preparation and eating of Spanish and Mexican cuisine. Some like it hot and some not. Beverages, main dishes, snacks, salads and desserts of Spanish heritage may at some time be tastefully served by a Spanish student. So, if you're ready to accept the challenges, check into a foreign language and especially Spanish. The experience can be rewarding and a lot of fun even though your first hour was terribly frightening. Adios amigos y bueno suerte en espanol.

New Club HITS Kent City High School

This year for the first time Kent City High School has a boxing club. It is referred to as a club because not enough people want to get involved in it. Mr. Schultze, coach of the club, said that no other school has a boxing club to compete with. Boxing practice started three weeks before Christmas vacation. The schedule for practices are after school on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. John Nauta, a graduate from Kent City High School, boxes for the Golden Gloves. John has been to Kent City High School several times. While there he showed the boys some boxing techniques. He has given the school boxing gloves and punching bags. He also brought the boys down to his training camp in Grand Rapids. Members of the club are: Ray Nauta, Cary Patton, Chuck Rathman, Dan Griswold, and Bob Wolcott. If you are interested in doing something after school, there is still time to sign up for the club. Even though it is more of a boys' sport, girls are welcome too. So come on girls and try your luck at boxing!

Eagles hand Grant loss

By Jim Emery

Four Kent City players scored in double figures as the host Eagles rolled-over previously unbeaten Grant, 72-54 last Friday. This win raises the Eagles' N.C.A.A. record to 4-1 and is identical to Grants' with the Tigers yet to play White Cloud.

Harry Kukla took scoring honors pumping in 23 points, while Doug Weston added 16. Brian Laver and Dan Afton were the other two players, making 11 and 10 points respectively.

The first period was evenly played by both teams with the score staying deadlocked almost the entire eight minutes. Eleven Tiger fouls during this time, however, gave the Eagles numerous free throw opportunities and the lead, 17-14.

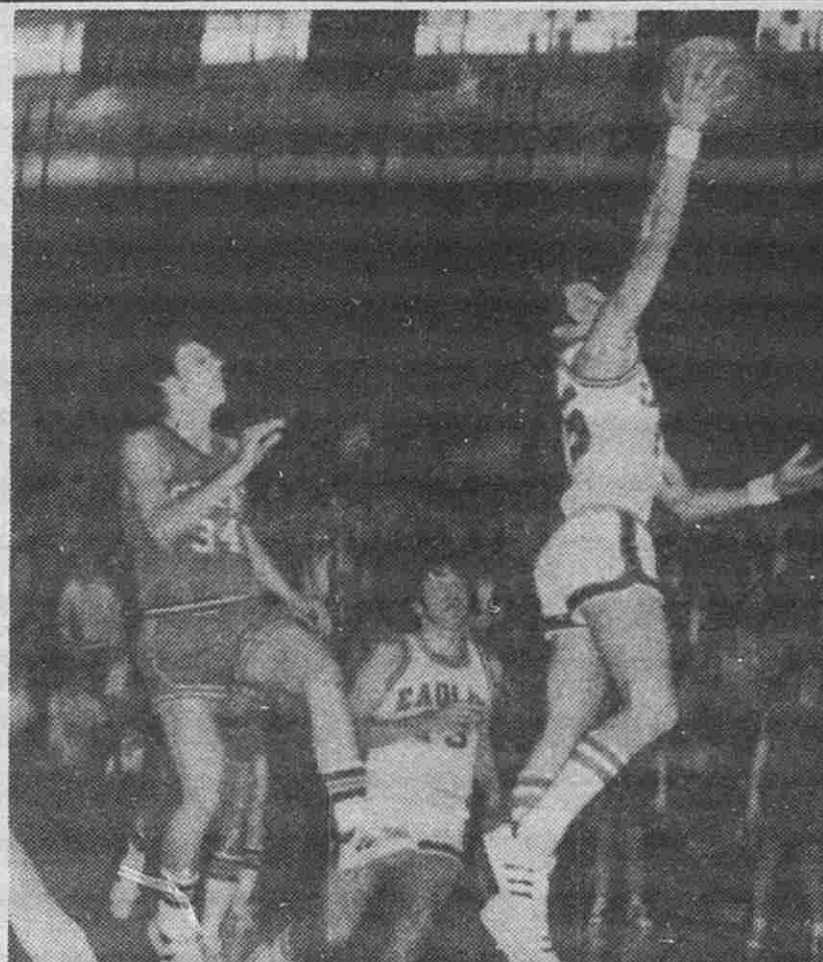

In the second period, Kukla drew countless fouls with his offensive moves, and sank 5 of 6 free throws besides two more buckets. This aggressive play kept Kent City in the lead going into the lockerrooms at halftime 32-28.

After the break, the fans were kept on their feet with quick offensive action. Kent City outscored Grant, 8-6 in the first two minutes, and led at the end of the quarter 52-42. Kukla scored eight points while Weston tallied seven, each taking turns shooting.

The final period saw three Grant players, Terry Prickett, Kevin Smith and Brad Gee pick up their fifth fouls and leave the game. During the final eight minutes the Eagles out-distanced the tigers, 20-12.

Leading the Eagle team in the rebounding department was Jason Johnson with 13, while Afton and Weston each grabbed seven.

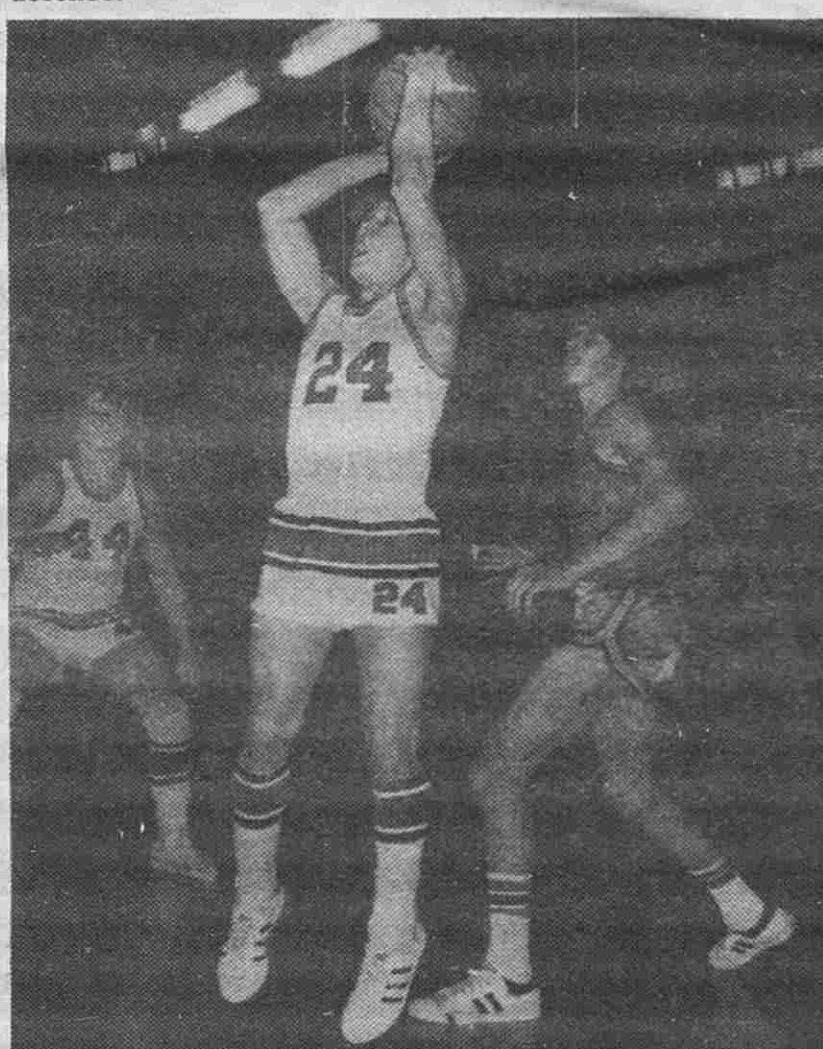

Kent City traveled to Hesperia on Tuesday, and will play host to Morley Stanwood on Friday, January 14.

Kent City's Harry Kukla [15] drives in for two of his game high 23 points. Grant's Matt Osburn [34] and Eagle teammate John Doane look on.

Doug Weston [34] passes to a teammate in the lane. Grant's Terry Prickett [14] and Jim Mansfield [54] are on defense.

In J.V. action Kent City's Doug Jensen hits a jump shot while teammate Mike Southwell [44] is ready to rebound. Grant defender Bill DeVries watches. The Little Tigers won the game 67-35.

Brian Laver stumbles after scoring a driving lay-up in Kent City's 60-48 victory over Sparta. Tim Thome [14] of the Spartans and Kent City's Weston look on. Laver had scoring honors with 25 points.

Kent City calender

- Jan. 11 - Boy's Basketball - Away with Hesperia at 6:30
- Jan. 12 - Farm Bureau Annual meeting and dinner. 3:30-9:30 in the Auditorium and Cafeteria
- Jan. 14 - Boy's Basketball - Home with Morley Stanwood at 6:30
- Jan. 14 - Sophomore Dance after game until 11:30
- Jan. 18 - Boy's Basketball - away with North Muskegon at 6:15
- Jan. 21 - Boy's Basketball - home with Tri County at 6:30
- Jan. 21 - Freshman Dance after game until 11:30
- Jan. 25 - Boy's Basketball - away with Muskegon Oakridge at 6:15
- Jan. 27 - End of Semester
- Jan. 28 - Records day - students no school
- Jan. 28 - Boy's Basketball - away with Holton at 6:30