When will it all end?

It's getting to be an old saw now, but the Spartans suffered two more bitter defeats the past week. On Tuesday the Spartan quintet ventured to Kent City to face their neighborhood rivals, and the Eagles came away with a 60-48 victory. As has been the case this season, Sparta managed to stay close to K.C. for most of the first half, but fizzled out in the second. Chris Christopher led the scoring effort with 22 points, with Tom Sheckler adding 9 and Tim Thome 7.

The Spartans hosted the surging Belding Redskins on Friday night, and despite an aggressive defense and well-balanced scoring attack, the Skins came out on top, 73-60. Tom Sheckler pumped for 14 points, Nick Lewis chipped in 12, and Doug McCotter tallied 10. Sheckler took down 7 rebounds, with McCotter and Christopher each snaring 6 and Lewis pulling down 5.

Sparta travels to Coopersville Friday night to renew their long-standing rivalry with the Broncos.

Frosh Nip Skins

The freshmen basketball team won their seventh game of the season, against only two defeats, last Friday January 7, as they nipped the Belding Redskins 49-44. The Spartans were ahead at the end of every quarter, but never by more than five points. John Andrus took scoring honors for Sparta with 14 points. Justin Sullivan added 13 points and had a game high of 17 rebounds. Dan Lockard followed with 10 rebounds.

The freshmen now own a 4-1 conference record.
